

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Windsor RSL Club – Board Appointments

Windsor RSL is pleased to advise members and visitors of two recent appointments to the Board, further strengthening the Club's governance, leadership, and commitment to serving its members and the wider Hawkesbury community.

Nicole Ryan – Casual Vacancy Appointment

Nicole Ryan brings more than 30 years of senior executive experience across corporate governance, stakeholder and community engagement, government relations, communications, and strategic leadership in highly regulated sectors including energy, water, and infrastructure.

A long-time Windsor resident and active member of the local community, Nicole is strongly connected to the Hawkesbury region and committed to supporting the continued success of Windsor RSL as a community-focused Club. Her experience will assist the Board in ensuring the Club continues to meet the needs of members while strengthening its community engagement and long-term sustainability.

Sarah McMahon – Independent Director

(3-Year Term commencing 1 April 2026)

Sarah McMahon is a practising Solicitor specialising in Family Law and holds qualifications in Law and Communication (Journalism). She is a Member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

Sarah brings extensive governance and leadership experience, having served the Hawkesbury community as an elected representative on Hawkesbury City Council for almost a decade, including as Mayor and Deputy Mayor. She also contributes to community service through volunteer work with the NSW Rural Fire Service and has held director roles across both commercial and not-for-profit organisations.

Windsor RSL remains committed to providing a welcoming, safe, and inclusive environment for members, visitors, and the wider community. The Club continues to focus on delivering quality facilities, social connection, and meaningful support for local initiatives across the Hawkesbury region.

The addition of Nicole Ryan and Sarah McMahon to the Board further strengthens the Club's leadership and strategic direction, ensuring Windsor RSL continues to thrive as a valued community hub.

We warmly welcome both Nicole and Sarah and look forward to their contribution to the ongoing success of the Club.

---

CHRIS WHITELEY
CEO