

By-Law #1

Electioneering

- 1 A member must not, and must not procure another person to, promote, display, or distribute any “how to vote”, promotional or campaign material on or within any of the premises or grounds owned or operated by the Club, or within the immediate vicinity of any such premises or grounds.
- 2 No person shall wear any clothing or carry any object in premises or grounds owned or operated by the Club, or within the immediate vicinity of any such premises or grounds that:
 - (a) refers to the name of any candidates or persons for election to any Board position (including an Executive position) or any position on a committee of the Club or sub-club;
 - (b) would reasonably be construed as advocating for or against any candidate or person.
- 3 Nothing in this by-law prevents:
 - (a) the posting of names of the candidates and their nominators by the Secretary on the Club Noticeboard after the close of nominations in accordance with the Constitution; or
 - (b) distribution by the Returning Officer or the Secretary (or any persons formally assisting) on premises or grounds owned or operated by the Club or within their immediate vicinity, of ballot papers, including instructions as to how the ballot papers may be validly completed and cast.
- 4 If a member seeking nomination for any Board position breaches this By-Law, the Returning Officer may void that member's nomination.
